Purpose

ESCC establishes a vision is a guiding image of success that will motivate staff, board and members.

Policy

As part of the strategic plan for 2015-2017 the following vision was established:

The Edmonton Seniors Coordinating Council enhances the ability of member organizations to support the wellbeing of all seniors.

Responsibilities

The vision is revisited during the strategic planning activities of the Board of Directors and established through consultation with the membership, staff and key stakeholders.

Procedures

The ESCC Board of Directors will ensure that its vision is current and reflects the values and long-term focus of the organization.
